ABOUT BRYAN MORRIS & CAT RHODES

Bryan Morris: The band “The Truth” was formed by Bryan Morris. Bryan Morris is a musician, songwriter, and producer. Bryan is the producer of the single “I Got It” and Blues Sitting On My Doorstep. His production company is B Mo Productions LLC.” At the age of five, Bryan started performing with the Men of Distinction. A band that was directed and managed by his father, the late Joseph A. Morris. Bryan performed with John “Jabo” Starks, former drummer of the James Brown band. Jabo was a member of the Men of Distinction when Bryan began performing. Beginning in 1982, Bryan performed with distinguished musicians such as Bobby Humphries, Artique Duke Payne—Bagpipes, E.B. Coleman Jazz Orchestra, and jazz trumpet maestro, Maynard Ferguson. In 1984, Bryan was hired as the drummer for the Surgeon General Band (Top 40). Bryan’s performance career continued with: The Michael Foster Project (jazz band) and Doja Composure; Dojo Composure featured rapper Lavell Crump a.k.a. David Banner; produced tracks for Doja Composure; performed with jazz trumpeter Eric Baskins; performed with jazz clarinetists Alvin Batiste; and toured with American Bluesman Kenny Neal for many years.

Cat Rhodes: Cat Rhodes is an accomplished vocalist and songwriter. She is a television producer and a model. Cat has performed as a guest artist with Kenny Neal while he was touring in Paris, the Caribbean, Florida, and California. Cat Rhodes has also appeared as the opening act for Bryan McKnight whose work earned him 16 Grammy Awards nominations. She has opened for Pebo Bryson, a winner of two Grammy Awards. Cat Rhodes & The Truth were recognized by their peers and mentors by receiving recognition on the

Pensacola, FL Mississippi Blues Marker. Cat Rhodes and Bryan Morris were producers of the Florida television show Cat Traxx. As the host of Cat Traxx, Cat Rhodes interviewed many notables including Bobby Rush who she had the honor of performing with on her show. Cat Rhodes has a unique voice and a compelling stage presence. She has a following of loyal fans who pack the house when she performs in her home base of Pensacola, FL and Mobile, AL
